Parenting and fun expert Lisa Baron has great ideas on where to go and what to do with all those out of town guests this week!

Snow Mountain! www.stonemountainpark.com

If you and the kids are itching to hit the slopes this winter and the chance of a snow-covered city doesn't look too promising, head to Stone Mountain's "Snow Mountain" for a few hours of fun! The park features a 400-foot snow tubing hill, a 30,000-square-foot SnowZone play area for snowman and igloo fort construction, plus a "Little Angels" area for children under 48 inches. After enjoying the snow, guests can warm up by an outdoor fire and Enjoy warm drinks and freshly made s'mores while watching the tubers!

Ice Skating at Centennial Olympic Park
<http://www.centennialpark.com>

Celebrating its thirteenth anniversary season in the fall, Atlanta's only outdoor ice skating rink at Centennial Olympic Park is an annual holiday tradition. Visitors enjoy covered observation seating, theatrical lighting on the real ice and holiday music!

Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta's

Family Fun Day <http://www.atlantajcc.org/>

Not all Atlantans celebrate Christmas. That's why The Marcus Jewish Community Center offers a day of family fun activities on Friday, Dec. 25. The doors open at 10:00 AM and the theme this year is: Board Game Extravaganza where games come to life.

Dave and Buster's HALF OFF WEDNESDAYS!!!!!!

www.daveandbusters.com

For a limited time only Dave and Busters is offering half off all games on Wednesday from open to close! Enjoy great food, delicious drinks while your little ones (or big ones) game their little hearts out!

The Steel Mill Express Children's Train www.atlanticstation.com

A charming miniature train ride for all ages recalling the industrial heritage of the Atlantic Station site. The train's operating hours are from 12noon – 8pm on Saturdays and Sundays. Tickets are $3 per person and can be purchased at the Steel Mill Express Ticket Depot near Rosa Mexicano. The train is weather permitting and will be cancelled if it is raining.

Hope aboard the Blue Star Entertainment Train at Gwinnett Place Mall. Kids and adults can board this holiday express at Center Court and enjoy a scenic tour of the mall while waving to shoppers along the way!

Genki Noodles and Sushi www.genkiatl.com

Moms and Dads will be spending enough time in the kitchen this holiday season. Get out of the kitchen and get over to Genki! Genki Noodles & Sushi has a fantastic $5 kids menu that includes a drink and ice cream. While both the Genki locations offer the kids menu. Genki's kids menu is also a nice alternative to the standard grilled cheese sandwiches, pizza and hot dogs that most restaurants serve; and, kids get to learn about another culture. So sit back, relax, and let someone else wait on you for a change!
